From the computers of... Lise Greene & Ken Robinson, NNJSDA Co-Presidents

In June, there was a “changeover” meeting with all the NNJSDA outgoing and incoming officers. Thank you to those who served the Association faithfully during the past year(s) and are not continuing on the Board: Jeanne Gannon, Greg Fokszey, Jan and Louis Thompson, and Shirley and Dick White. And a big welcome to the new Board members: Barbara Berger, Alice DeLancey, Billy Flynn, Jeanne Weisman, Eleanor and Steve Frank, and Chris Beck Patrick. Some of last year’s Board members have moved to new positions on the Board this year. Please check page 2 of this issue for a complete listing of officers and other Board members. On the website, you will find photos and contact information for all of us (nnjsda.org/whoswho.php).

A special welcome is extended to Chris Beck Patrick, our new editor. We are delighted that she has taken the helm with the help of a team of experienced and new assistants. Chris and her husband, caller Michael Patrick, are members of Reelers.

Last year, the NNJSDA Executive Board “raided” every club that completed the One Square Is Fair program, which requires a club to have at least eight members at a designated number of Association dances during one season. The six clubs that earned the award (and a dues reduction) in 2009 repeated their accomplishment in 2010 – congratulations! Completing our highlighting of those six clubs, we will feature Kittatinny Rangers and Bee Sharps.

Kittatinny Rangers (Mainstream/Plus) – The drive to Andover in the northwest corner of our dance region was well worth the trip, and not only because the club’s method for assigning refreshment duties ensures a delectable variety on the crowded table! Some of the enthusiastic new dancers have already taken on leadership roles that complement the work of other club officers, several of whom are also NNJSDA Board members. They have implemented new ideas on recruitment and retention and have more in the works. Congratulations to Bob and Francine Leshnow for their term as presidents, and to Stan and Georgia Tyburski for their work as class coordinators.

Bee Sharps (Mainstream/Plus/Rounds) – This club has many members who enjoy visiting other clubs and welcoming visitors to Bound Brook. The air-conditioned hall with a wood floor is an extra attraction, but of course the main draw is great dancing (and good food). Club presidents Ken and Kathleen Heaphy have provided excellent leadership in keeping the dances high-spirited. Class coordinators Bob and Diana Cole have brought in new dancers, many of whom continued from Mainstream to Plus. Some club members have also completed the Patron program, which encourages all dancers to visit other clubs. Thanks for your participation on several levels in NNJSDA.

While many of our member clubs are flourishing, a few are floundering. We were sad to bid farewell to two clubs last year – Masqueraders and Spinning Wheels. However, some new groups have formed, and we hope to welcome them as official members in the future.

The Executive Board is exploring various ways to publicize square dancing more effectively, and your ideas are welcome. One venue for sharing suggestions is at The Gathering on October 9, where timely issues will be presented by experienced square dance leaders who will share their success stories and brainstorm new approaches with the participants. In addition to getting ideas for their own club, attendees will receive a couple of bonuses: an attractive tote bag imprinted with square dance information that will catch the eye of passersby, and an evening dance with well-known caller John Marshall from Virginia and Mary Pickett cueing rounds. Please see pages 34 and 35 for detailed information on this very special event.

Lise Greene and Ken Robinson, NNJSDA Co-Presidents

Letter to the Editor

We would like to thank you, our fellow dancers of the NNJSDA. Our 10-year tenure as Grand Square co-editors has given us many priceless friendships and memories. We were thrilled by the tremendous turnout at the Benefit Dance, a testimony to your appreciation of this fine publication. We will always treasure the engraved clocks that were presented to us that day. See you on the dance floor!

Jan & Louis Thompson and Barbara & Norman Kanter, Past Co-Editors

Grand Square Benefit Dance

When was the last time you danced with 23 squares in the hall? At Elmwood Park, no less?

That was the scene on Sunday, April 25, at the first Grand Square Benefit Dance. The enthusiasm of the dancers together with the sheer numbers made the event full of energy and excitement.

Joe Landi volunteered his calling talents, and Mary Pickett donated her cueing expertise, so all proceeds went to benefit Grand Square. Many people who could not attend bought tickets or made contributions to the cause. The final tally was more than enough to cover all expenses for a complete Grand Square issue.

Peg Tirrell (below), who served for 25 years as Grand Square editor with her late husband Doc, was honored during the dance.

Our recently "retired" editors (l-r: Louis and Jan Thompson, Norman and Barbara Kanter) were presented with engraved book clocks in appreciation of their 10 years of outstanding service.

Ken Robinson scanned and enlarged past Grand Square covers, and Jan Thompson mounted them for display around the hall. They evoked fond memories for many of the dancers.

Thanks to Joe Landi for sharing his wonderful idea, and to Mary Pickett for her valuable contribution. Thanks also to Jan Thompson, whose efforts as chairperson and registrar made publicity and ticket sales go smoothly.

Letter from the Editor

I would like to extend a huge THANK YOU to Don Schlesinger, Rusty Ball, Lise Greene, Mary-Ann Ryan Erdek, and Jim Van Rensalier for their proofing, production assistance, guidance, and eagle-eyes. A very special thank you to Barbara and Norman Kanter and Jan and Louis Thompson for all of the above plus more than a little hand-holding! Without them, along with club article writers and ad makers, there wouldn't be a Grand Square publication. I'm sure a change or two was missed somewhere, but hopefully nothing too important.

If you are interested in joining the Grand Square "staff," please contact me at editor@nnjsda.com. The next deadline for Grand Square ad and article submissions is November 7, 2010. Until then, Happy Dancing!

The big smiles attest to the great time these New Jersey and New York dancers had at the National Convention. Three of the dancers made it a real "road-trip." Patsy Lisak of RocklandRockytops along with Linda Millian and Arlene Remington of Belles & Beaux spent three weeks traveling in Patsy's camper touring Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Kentucky, dancing along the way and loving every minute!

Lise Greene and Mark Bippes

Two ideals, learning and serving, weave through the lives of Lise and Mark. Lise, who grew up in Nutley, NJ, graduated from Montclair State University with a BA in English. Mark, raised in Rochester, NY, completed a BS in Mathematics at Albright College, and then spent five years in full-time Christian youth work. Their lives intersected at Moody Bible Institute, where they had both enrolled in the graduate school.

They ended up in the same five classes in the first semester! They married the following year. Both later completed an MA in Counseling at MSU.

After completing their master's degrees, they thought it would be fun to continue taking courses for pleasure instead of a degree. In 1981, they took Mainstream lessons sponsored by Warren Wheelers (a club they joined), followed by NNJSDA-sponsored Plus lessons over the summer. In 1988, they began round dance lessons with Al and Gale Spinks. Upon moving to Lake Hopatcong, they joined Sussex Spinners. Mark and Lise joined Reelers in 2001, where they have served as refreshment chairs, raid chairs, treasurer (Mark), secretary and newsletter editor (Lise). They are also members of Kittatinny Rangers, where Lise was reporter and ad maker. For the NNJSDA, they served as 3rd VP for Publicity for two years. Lise is currently in her second term as Co-President. However, Barbara Kanter, former Grand Square editor, has noticed, "Mark might not have his name up there, but whenever I see him, he's working."

Lise cites the first Kittatinny Rangers dinner dance she attended as her best dance experience. She enjoyed Johnny Preston's outstanding calling and mini-concert, as well as the delicious food, decorations, and tricky tray. Mark's favorite dance experience was at Western Wheelers this past season. "Howard Williamson was calling a very challenging Plus. There was one fun square in particular; we didn't break down, and it was the best tip ever!"

Just before they married, Mark took a summer job as a window installer, which eventually led him to establish his own construction company. He started volunteering with Habitat for Humanity in 1987 and became a full-time employee in 2000. After one and a half years in North Carolina, he became Construction Supervisor and Volunteer Trainer for Morris (County) Habitat for Humanity in New Jersey.

Lise went on to earn a PhD in Higher Education Administration at New York University. She was employed at Montclair State University for 25 years, the last 18 as Executive Assistant to the President. While Mark was in North Carolina, she spent a year in Denmark learning her mother's language in order to translate family diaries and letters into English (an ongoing project). Upon leaving MSU, she returned to Denmark to teach English for a semester, and then spent the following year in a graduate program to earn certification in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. She also spent two years as a newspaper journalist and photographer. Currently, she is at Lehigh University in Pennsylvania as Presidential Writer.

Summer Square Dance Demos

Belles & Beaux performed a lively square dance demo at the Bergenfield Library in May with caller Fran Wadel. Participants included Bob Bachmann (Circle Eights), Barbara Berger, Brenda and Wayne Sherman, Rosann Flynn, and a member of John Callahan's senior group in Tenafly.

Fran explained to the audience how modern square dancing includes non-traditional music and songs, such as Broadway melodies, Disney songs, and other popular tunes. She then called in her sweet, lovely voice.

Some of her singing calls included "Walking My Baby Back Home," "Rocky Top," a Disney musical selection, and "Solomon Levi" ("Umpsy Daisy").

Fran had audience members participating in some of the tips. The audience included several pre-schoolers, ages 4–6, who had a great time dancing — especially when Fran directed them to "give a high-five" to the other dancers. And of course, the kids knew exactly what to do!

Other NNJSDA clubs also participated in demos over the summer at parades, festivals, the Monmouth Park racetrack (see article on page 54), the New Jersey State Fair/Sussex County Farm and Horse Show, and the Richmond County Fair.

What Moves Us?

Several NNJSDA dancers had the opportunity to dance and act in a commercial for an arthritis pain reliever following a casting call for square dancers from a professional agency. On short notice, dancers from New Jersey as well as New York and Pennsylvania auditioned in July at the agency on Madison Avenue in New York. Two Association dancers were hired – Paul Ingis (Belles & Beaux) as the caller and Hal Stoller (Reelers) as a lead dancer. Others were hired later as background dancers, but the featured square consisted of four actresses, two actors, and only two experienced dancers (Hal and a man from Philadelphia).

Paul said, "It was a lot of fun. In less than an hour, the actors and actresses were able to do a dozen calls quite well and they looked pretty good. I included Couples Promenade Halfway, Square Thru, Right and Left Thru, Veer Left, and Ferris Wheel, to bring them back to their corner. Thus, they were able to do a full singing call with only a small percentage of the Mainstream list."

The actual commercial was filmed on July 28 from 8 am to 4 pm. Paul described the commercial's three scenes. In the first, a woman is able to practice square dancing early in the day. In the second, she attends a dinner party. In the third, she enjoys an evening square dance. All of this is possible because of her pain medication, Vimovo: "What moves me," as she proclaims.

In addition to the featured square, extras were hired to sit at tables, and two squares danced in the background. That group had enough experienced dancers – including Hal's wife Irene and Paul's wife Joanne – to help the actors. In addition to calling, Paul was filmed teaching the main character some fine points of dancing.

"The number of people needed to produce the commercial was astounding," said Hal. "There were electricians, cameramen, wardrobe and makeup people, production and marketing people, and someone who sat outside in a truck running a generator."

Square Dance Competition

An open Mainstream square dance competition was held on Thursday, June 24, 2010, at the 59th National Square Dance Convention in Louisville, KY. Tony Oxendine and Randy Dougherty called for the 37 squares that had signed up to compete. We had the pleasure of being asked to fill in a square with dancers from the Buckaroos Club from PA. After a brief warm-up in which errors were not penalized, the competition began with one judge assigned to each square.

The judging was not on styling but on completing the execution of the call – being in the correct position with the proper partner. If the square broke down after a call, it was allowed to remain in the competition if the dancers repaired the square within 10 beats of the music. If unable to do so, the square received a yellow warning flag. A second mistake not repaired within 10 beats resulted in a “black flag,” and the square was eliminated.

Spectators from our club who were watching the competition said that we were in one of the last six squares on the floor; we were elated to have lasted that long! It was one of the highlights of the Convention for us. The winning square put on a fine show of expert dancing, and it was a delight to see them finish.

Lise and Mark's only "child" is a pampered black cat named Spooky. They also adore their many nieces and nephews. They enjoy sailing, biking, canoeing, hiking, and playing tennis. Mark is very involved at his church as an elder, youth leader, and Sunday School teacher, and was a Scout leader for two of their nephews. Lise likes traveling (25 foreign countries so far), gardening, choral singing, and reading. Mark and Lise have volunteered with Habitat for Humanity and the Fuller Center for Housing, including a 100-mile walk from Paterson to Philadelphia to raise awareness and funds. Mark has taken many student groups on weeklong building projects and participated in several Jimmy Carter Work Projects, while Lise ran two Hoedown for Humanity fundraisers and volunteers as a writer and photographer. They have competed in several triathlons to benefit Special Olympics – Mark as an individual athlete (biking, canoeing, running) and Lise on a four-person team (as a canoeist). They both placed first in their divisions on occasion!

When asked what was the best thing she ever did, Lise replied, "I reconnected with my mother's family and culture by living in Denmark and learning the language. It was the best year of my life." Mark's response to the same question was, "I decided to become a Christian and live by the Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Both Lise and Mark exemplify living by this creed.

Youth Square Dancing

“We need more dancers on the floor” is the refrain that we have been hearing for decades. The short-term solution is to recruit younger dancers, ages 30–50. The very long-term targets are the youth that will dance for a few years now, then possibly drop out and return later in life.

Historically, youth have been introduced to square dancing through family, 4-H, or schools. Decades ago, many of our clubs had youth groups. Many of our club members had teen and pre-teen children. Some were campers whose whole family square danced on weekends. Rutgers Promenaders was established for students on the college campus. Cross Trail Squares had a youth division that held its own dances. The popular misconception in the greater New York City area is that square dancing is for seniors. We gave up on the youth; they grew up and moved on, without being replaced. Our fault!

Many callers across the country are working very hard to keep their youth groups or establish new groups. The Northwest Youth Competition has been drawing 400–500 youth each of the last 40 years. Here in the Northeast, Betsy Gotta (NJ), Mike Callahan (NY), and Tom Miller (PA) currently have middle/high school programs. Each of them got started with a personal contact.

In pockets all across the country there are “Home School” groups that have discovered square dancing as an enjoyable way to satisfy the physical education requirement. California has required each middle and high school to have a music and dance unit as part of physical education. Materials available to them are not interesting to the students; thus several callers are developing packages of music and instruction suitable for today’s youth.

It was discovered that introducing competition generates interest and enthusiasm similar to the “Dancing with the Stars” TV show. Currently, a committee in CALLERLAB is looking for schools that could be interested in a pilot program of competitive youth square dancing.

If you have contacts in a school, 4-H, or the Home School community, please send me their contact information and we will try to start such a program in this area.

Tom Miller has expanded from one to four schools in Pennsylvania and was told that he has now introduced 5,000 kids to square dancing. Some of their parents asked him to help them start a new adult club so that they could join the fun.

Consider: Tom Miller, Tony Oxendine, Tim Marriner, and Betsy Gotta all started as youth dancers, then youth callers. The internationally known callers of the future will be from the youth dancers/callers of today and tomorrow.

Join us at the September Delegates meeting to talk more about this important subject.

AleMo Squares hopes that all of the clubs in the Association had a wonderful summer and that they are refreshed and back for a banner year of square dancing. First we would like to get some personal business done. We would like to pay tribute to three members of AleMo who passed away over the past few months: Tom Doyle, who was instrumental in publishing the AleMo newsletter, Rick Kaye, and Dolores Kessler. They were all great members of our club and we miss them.

Our February Open House was hampered by brutally cold weather. Since this event feeds our student class size, we did not have a graduating class. We welcomed the eight Staten Island graduates into the square dance community and our club.

We have some ambitious plans for the rest of the square dance year and look forward to engaging with the other clubs in the Association. We hope for more new dancers from the August, Monday night ABC Dances on Staten Island.

Last season Gardner Patton, our club caller/instructor, with assistance from new callers Wes Thielke and Joe Kwiatek, did a great job coaching 20 “solid” new Plus dancers to graduation in June. Congratulations to all new Plus graduates – Keep on Dancin’. The Bee Sharps had another fun year raiding the Middletown Ramblers, Hix & Chix, Reelers, Belles & Beaux, Hunterdon Flutterwheels, and Cross Trail Squares, and completed “One Square Is Fair.”

This Fall we will be dancing Plus from September to mid-January and then switching to alternating Mainstream and Plus from late January through May 2011.

An Open House is scheduled on September 13. Class begins on September 20, at the Adamsville School (400 Union Ave., Bridgewater, NJ 08807).

The Mainstream program will be completed in January, followed by a Plus class graduating in June. Tell your friends and then bring them to the open house.

Betsy Gotta is calling our scheduled Class Level Dance on January 28, 2011 to encourage student participation from all clubs.

A special thanks to the dedicated volunteers who made last year a success for the Bee Sharps – Kathleen and Ken Heaphy, Diana and Bob Cole, Nancy and Vic Ammons, Jane Ross, Joan Spagnolo, Irma Huhn, Cynthia Bartlett, Diane Coffman, Barbara and John Marlowe, Len Grasso, Alma Moore, Phyllis Perlowitz, and Holly and Bill Smythe.

CCNJ met June 12, starting with a workshop about choreography. The workshop encouraged callers to bring examples of choreography that had unexpectedly confused dancers. The callers attending then analyzed the problem areas and suggested helping hints or changes to the choreography. CCNJ offers a workshop/education session before each quarterly meeting to help both new and experienced callers increase their skills.

Looking to improve their skills, CCNJ callers Ron Kapnick, Barbara Kanter, and Fran Wadel attended callers' school before the 59th National Square Dance Convention. Also attending were 56 students, including eight youths (the youngest being 11 years old). A full quarter of the attendees were new callers with little or no experience.

Five CCNJ callers were among the local, regional, and national callers programmed at the convention. Our own Don Coy was a featured caller. Betsy Gotta worked all of the square dance halls as well as the contra hall. Other CCNJ callers programmed were Rich Delgado, Ron Kapnick, and Michael Winnick. Attending, but not programmed, were Fran Wadel, Barbara Kanter, and Dan Tapper. Betsy Gotta was also mentioned at the closing ceremonies as having attended 50 consecutive National Square Dance Conventions.

Look for some of the new CCNJ callers at the NNJSDA summer dances.

All had fun at May's Pajama Dance. Who could resist the appetizing array of breakfast food: pancakes with syrup, bacon, quiche, cantaloupe, and even a book of fairytales. Bedtime attire worn: pink jammies, scrubs, people with teddy bears. Caller Rick Gittelman wore a nightcap and slippers and sang "Dream Lover."

A bus full of dancers went on the May Mystery Bus Raid to Phillipsburg Manor in Tarrytown, NY. The evening was topped off by a dance at Friendly Squares in Katonah. True to their name, they were waiting to greet us when the bus arrived.

Thirteen brave square dancers participated July 5 in 90-degree plus heat in the Glen Rock parade. There was a barbecue and pool party afterwards at Chris O'Connor's house with 28 dancers attending. At the annual meeting, new officers were elected for the upcoming year: President: Maryjane Clewell, 1st VP, Amy Golden, and 2nd VP, Vicky Proskey (who will also be the Sunshine person).

We have graduated nine new members who are avidly attending dances.

Lastly, the club completed its raid card for 2010, thanks to enthusiastic raid chairs Maryjane, Joan, and Audrey.

Many Circle Eights club members participated in and enjoyed the April 25 Grand Square Benefit Dance with caller Joe Landi. Another April highlight was the Maywood Street Fair at which Circle Eighters performed. Under the calling of Paul Ingis, dancers entertained the crowds, and many of them joined in, including a lively group of high school students.

Circle Eights was a hit at its spring raid of Spinning Wheels on May 17, as Mickey McFarland called the tips. In June, one square represented the club at the raid of Rutgers Promenaders. On May 28, Circle Eights had its annual potluck dinner followed by a dance called by Betsy Gotta. New club officers were voted in. The Co-Presidents are Carol Freemyer and Nancy Stewart, 1st VPs: Gerry Beatty and Rick Savino, 2nd VPs: Joan and Tom DeAngelis, 3rd VPs: Clare and Frank Messina, Secretaries: Barbara and Bob Graziano, and Treasurers: Rosemary and Gene Dunton.

Two festive June occasions were raiding Spinning Wheels as part of the new raid year and dancing at Circle Eights' annual Ice Cream Social on the 25th. Both Paul Ingis's calling and the scrumptious sundaes were pretty "cool"!

As in other summers, Andy Woerner gathered a group of club members together to march and square dance in the Oradell Fourth of July parade. Circle Eights was a patriotic people pleaser!

Ginny and Eric Mailman, former club presidents and beloved Circle Eighters, have moved to Delaware. Chris O'Connor hosted a barbecue for them in his lovely home where they were presented with a gift and heartfelt gratitude for all their service and friendship. The club will miss two valuable members of its family.

Cross Trail Squares finished the 2009–2010 season with several events, including our annual pie night on April 14. There were just too many choices, so the best course of action was to taste them all! We finished our lesson schedule on May 12, graduating a large class of 16 students. They all seem to be enjoying their new dancing skills, and have participated in many of the student dances. We then finished out the season with our annual ice cream social.

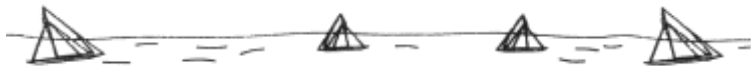

After lots of hard work and a couple of fun, well-attended raid seasons, Betsy Tapper has turned over the raid chairmanship to Sylvia and Peter Collette. Under their leadership, Cross Trails has already completed a significant number of raids and is well on its way to completing the requirement for this year. In another change for our club, Marie Ortega turned over the delegate’s position to Joan and Dennis Hanks.

Cross Trails was represented by nine members at the very successful national convention in Louisville, KY. Ron Kapnick and Ruth Edison attended the callers’ school before attending the convention, and we were excited to hear that Ron called a couple of tips in Kentucky! It seems the convention had something for everyone, from Mainstream on, including a “live music” hall, which drew a very large crowd.

We have met up with many friends over the summer at NNJSDA dances or club dances where they are fortunate to have an air-conditioned hall. As summer goes flying by, Cross Trails members are looking forward to beginning our new season with an Open House on the last Tuesday in September.

Everyone wants to have fun and be happy. That is the secret to a healthy life. Now you can do that easily and exercise your whole body and mind at the same time. All you have to do is come to a F.A.D. (Fun At Dancing) square dance on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of every month all year long.

But there is more good news — thanks to our Treasurers (Jim and Carol), we will now have a second F.A.D. square dance on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of every month at the Maywood Senior Center. The 1st Thursday will be Mainstream and the 3rd Thursday will be Plus.

A free Barn Dance will be held in Maywood on the last Sunday of each month starting August 29, 2010. Looking forward to seeing you at our dances.

Hix & Chix Summer Specials were off to a good start Thursday, June 10. A full house danced to the lively calling of old favorites Tom Miller (PA) and Bill Harrison (MD). On a slightly more sedate note, Regina and Rick Wagenhoffer provided the cueing for the round dancers.

On June 24 we welcomed an addition to our roster — Caller Mike Callahan (NY). (While we thoroughly enjoyed his calling, the floor was a bit sparse, with many of our regulars off to the National Convention in Louisville.) Karen Kushla was back, keeping our round dancers happy.

By the time this Grand Square is out, we will have provided four more Specials — hope you were able to enjoy them.

Evolve or die—and thrive (Success stories from those who have effectively evolved and some of their strategies)

The real definition of Evolve is to grow, change, to undergo gradual change; develop. Thrive means flourish, prosper, succeed, increase, be healthy.

John Marshall Keynote Address: “Square Dancing and the 6 Senses – The Role They Play In the Activity and Its Promotion”

Breakouts:

“History and Horizons... Traditions and Techno in a New-Fangled World!”

By Howard Richman

- ✓ Many different aspects of square dancing from Traditional Music to Pop and House....
Traditional couples to the “we’re here to dance now get in a square!”
- ✓ Not being concerned (or judgmental) if they don’t “fit the mold” of traditional square dancers
- ✓ What does “judgmental” behavior look like and how can it be avoided?
- ✓ Presenting a wide variety of music for all ages/ groups — examples
- ✓ Attracting same-sex couples: 3 ways a club can be same-sex-friendly
- ✓ OK, you’ve attracted same-sex couples, now how do you make them feel welcome?

“Square Dancing is not a “Singles Activity,” but Solos Are Welcomed Here!”

By Eileen Okolowicz

- ✓ Attracting solos: Ways a club can be solo-friendly
- ✓ Solo dancing (OK, you’ve attracted solos, now how do you make them feel welcome?)
- ✓ Fashion “police” or open arms — dress code and lack thereof:
How to make wording for attire attractive and understandable — how to encourage suitable attire without requiring it?

“Growing the Square Dance Family”

By Dan Koft

- ✓ How do we get into the schools to introduce dancing?
- ✓ How do outsiders approach school district; what if school district approaches YOU, the dancer?
- ✓ Dancing with kids—what to do and what not to do to keep them coming back
- ✓ Attracting/encouraging families:
Factors that attract/prevent family participation (time of dances/classes on school nights, non-alcoholic, dancers who know how to deal with height and attention span issues)
- ✓ Home-schooling ins and outs; list pros and cons of home-schooling program
- ✓ How do outsiders approach the home-schooling network?

“Dancers with Limits—Together We Can All Have Fun”

By Michelle Mabie

- ✓ Declining dancers: How do we keep our loved ones involved?
Coping with physical problems — the halting step, one-handed dancer, failing sight and/or hearing, dancers with limited stamina needing to be replaced during a tip, etc.
- ✓ Including everyone at their own limits (not insisting everyone dance, but making it possible for them to dance when they want to and sit out when they want to do that)
- ✓ Using cultural awareness to promote square dancing (increasing diversity) — How to encourage different cultural groups to embrace American square dance?

IT WAS MURDER, SHE SAID IN GLEN ROCK . . .

Last April's "Murder on the Glen Rock Express" was a mystery-filled suspenseful evening, the 11th year, and "best one yet."

The wonderful cast and characters were Elsa Maxwell, the nasty hostess who gave fabulous parties (Linda Millian); Gladys Gigglepuss, the fumbling assistant (Amy Golden); Richard Worthington, shady Wall St. financier (Dan Wuerdeman of AleMo); Lucille McGillacutty, fading actress hoping to make a comeback (Margaret Kenter); corrupt Mississippi Senator Dory Calhone, who couldn't spell his home state (Mike Santolini); and Seymour O. Brown (S.O.B.), train porter/murderer (Richard Ball). Of course Law & Order was in attendance also — Detective Percy Periwinkle (Michael Gecht of AleMo) who, just like Sherlock Holmes, solved the murder!

At the end of the evening, the butler didn't do it — but all who knew her said that the victim (Elsa Maxwell) had it coming!

Train whistles were awarded to audience members who correctly guessed the evening's villain. Choo, Choo!! Brenda Sherman (Belles & Beaux)

Congratulations to our Mainstream class, which graduated 16 new dancers this May. Thanks to the angels and students for their fortitude and determination. We are proud to have you all dancing on Friday nights.

Once again, many of our members volunteered to help the Hunterdon County Park System with the summertime “Music Under the Stars” program. We are also grateful for the combination of good friends and good food at the home of Peg & Fred Bailey, which made the Flutterwheel picnic a real success. We all look forward to this as a way of keeping in touch during the summer. In addition, the Bee Sharps and Flutterwheels put on a Mainstream dance July 31, for their newly graduated classes and experienced dancers. The club teachers, Ed Kerns and Gardner Patton, put on a good show and a good time was had by all.

It is a challenge to keep dancing during the summer, but the reward is great for those who are able to manage it. Pat and Don Elliott attended the National Square Dance Convention this summer in Louisville, KY. They rarely miss a convention. Many of our club members were able to visit other clubs that danced in air conditioning. However, we are always glad to get back to our regular dance schedule and our wonderful hardwood floor. Hope you can join us this coming dance season for fun and frivolity.

It was an interesting and successful season. Mainstream dancers from many clubs were attracted to dancing on the nights Paul Ingis called Mainstream between the tips. It also gave some of us a chance to dance nonstop the entire evening.

Attendance was excellent for our 37th anniversary dinner dance, our barn dances, and our June and July dances. Our barn dances have always been an opportunity for the community to experience square dancing. They have also served as a way to include children, nieces and nephews, and grandchildren. Barn dances that occurred on days when school was off provided many family outings.

We will begin a Plus class on September 14 for new students and Plus dancers wanting to brush up. Participants from other clubs are welcome. The class will start at 7:00 pm and end at 7:45. Fran Wadel will be the teacher. If you are interested in the class, call Kathy (973-366-8064) or email her at lakelandsquares@hotmail.com.

The scheduled dance will begin at 8:00. We will continue to provide more Mainstream and nonstop dancing by having either Paul Ingis or Wes Thielke come once a month to call Mainstream in between the tips.

Hal and Paul agreed that the producers had a genuine concern for authenticity. “They wanted square dancing to be represented as accurately as possible and were willing to make changes to their plans and costumes to accomplish that,” said Paul. “I and the other dancers answered their questions and gave them advice and they listened intently.” Hal noted that the producers supplied new square dance outfits from a western wear store to ensure a good variety of colors and styles.

Hal described the filming: “There were large spotlights adding to the heat in the non-air-conditioned hall. We would dance for a minute or so, and then someone would holler ‘cut’ and everything stopped. After they moved some lights, cameras, or people around, we would repeat the process. Paul managed to mix up the calls to keep it fun and interesting. The most exciting part was when a cameraman got in the center of the featured square and we had to dance around him.” Paul then amused everyone by calling, “Heads promenade go half way round, down the middle with a right and left thru, turn that girl as fast as you can, don’t trip over the cameraman.”

Except for the extreme heat, the dancers were excited about being in a commercial. It will be shown on the Internet by the pharmaceutical company Astra-Zeneca. “In addition to promoting the new drug, maybe the commercial will promote interest in square dancing,” noted Hal. Yes – that’s what moves us!

We Ramblers had a fairly busy summer. Thanks to the efforts of our high-energy president Al Peskoe, we were invited to the Monmouth Racetrack in Oceanport on July 25. Don Coy did an outstanding job as caller, and 70 square dancers from many NNJSDA clubs braved the heat to entertain onlookers. We relaxed in air-conditioned comfort between our three tips.

Our barn dances were huge successes. We had eight squares at our most recent dance, and more than half were newcomers. Wayne Applegate did a superb job, and there was sheer joy on their faces. We will be holding our final barn dance in a real barn at Thompson Park with Don Coy doing the honors.

The Middletown Ramblers Fall 2010 lineup has a lot of exciting callers. Please see our ad or website for details and directions. Hope to see you! Ramble on!

Chariss Smith & Carl Luhrs: 201-489-2498

From April through August we enjoyed the calling talents of Ken Ritucci, Roy Leber, Betsy Gotta, Todd Felleg, Don Moger, Sandie Bryant, and Keith Stevens. Some of our “fun” tips included old calls no longer on the list (Ken), the names of the calls in reverse (Ocean the Pass Heads) (Betsy), and same-sex squares (Don).

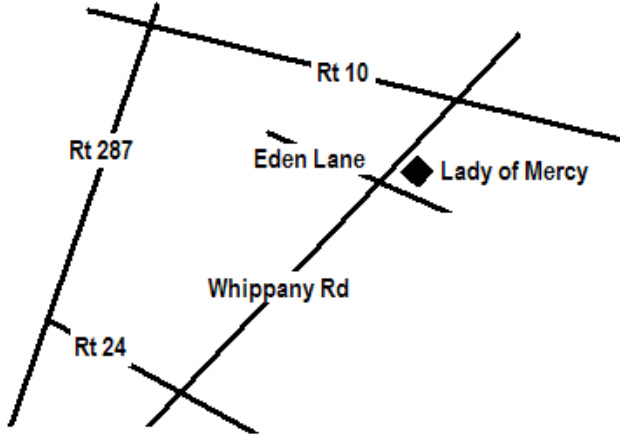

On May 15, many of our members enjoyed the NNJSDA Special Plus Dance, where we supplied some delicious refreshments. The following evening, we welcomed a 10-couple raid from Mountain Squares. Thank you, Mountain Squares!

PLEASE NOTE: On October 10, international caller John Marshall will be calling both an afternoon and evening dance for us. Check our ad for specifics.

In May, Chariss Smith and Carl Luhrs toured Canada’s New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island. Even with the chilly weather they enjoyed the sights, ate lobster, rode ferries, and chatted with friendly Canadians. Sue and Rich Baumeister visited their daughter, as well as the Eastern Sierra Nevada Mountains, and Yosemite, Sequoia, and Kings Canyon National Parks, in central California. They traded 70-degree weather on the east coast for temperatures in the 50s, including snow! In July, Jan and Louis Thompson were given a very warm welcome when they attended the Gay National Convention in Chicago.

On a sad note, we extend our heartfelt condolences to Louis Thompson upon the passing of his mother. May you know no more sorrow.

“A Prairie Home Companion” at NJPAC

We attended the sixth annual NNJSDA/New Jersey Performing Arts Center collaboration on April 17 to see “A Prairie Home Companion,” one of our favorite radio shows, with Garrison Keillor. We have been his fans for many years and were very happy to put our love of square dancing together with Garrison’s unique show. We never know what to expect when listening on Saturday nights from 6 to 8 pm (when we’re home).

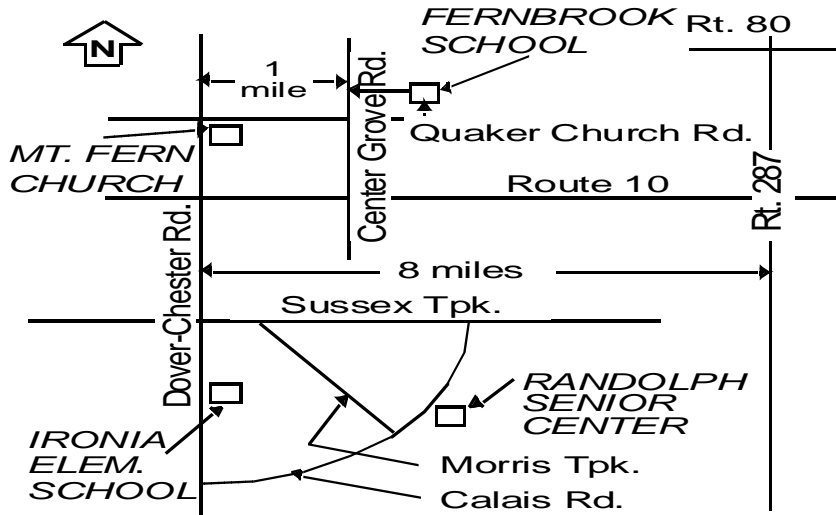

Both of us enjoyed the delicious barbecue in the company of other enthusiastic square dancers. We were once again warmly greeted by the NJPAC staff, including a personal welcome from Nicole Owens, Group Sales Manager.

It was fun to dance in the lobby while the other theatergoers are assembling, surprised to see real square dancing before the show and sometimes joining with us. Two new dancers from Circle Eights participated this year. Darlene and Walter Dorgan weren’t certain they were ready to go public, but we reassured them of our support. As it turned out, the house photographer was attracted to Darlene’s beautiful red square dance dress and she was featured in many pictures.

Garrison invited the audience to dance on stage to the bands playing during the first half of the show. We were hesitant at first, but decided to take the plunge when a band announced the jitterbug. We have been dancing jitterbug since before we were married – in fact, that’s how we met.

About nine years ago, we started square dancing and have met so many wonderful people. This is one of our favorite activities. In 2005 we attended the first NNJSDA/NJPAC partnership event, Oklahoma!, and have been to several subsequent shows. We look forward to many more years of dancing and attending the NJPAC.

Pat and Rich White (Circle Eights)

What a delicious potluck dinner we had at our final dance of the season on June 4th — scrumptious salads, marvelous main dishes, and delectable desserts. Joe Landi called a great dance and reminded us that the calls “are not optional.” The weather was hot, and so were the dancers!

During the last three consecutive dances, Reelers had visits from several local middle-school boys. They were so intrigued by the dancing that the night’s caller taught a learning tip especially for them. What fun we all had. Their enthusiasm was catching.

And speaking of lessons, Yolanda and John Garie and Joyce and Tom Gervasio completed Mainstream lessons in June. And what a lively group of angels we’ve had. It has been rumored that some of the guys were wrestling over an aqua pair of pettipants from a batch of donated clothes. At the next class one unnamed individual was seen wearing said pettipants tucked in his belt like a loincloth. Could this be the start of a new fashion trend?

Our dances start again in the fall. If you know people in the Randolph area interested in learning to square dance, invite them to join us for Mainstream classes on Tuesday nights at the Ionia Elementary School. Mike Patrick will be teaching.

Save April 10, 2011 for the Reelers’ 50th Anniversary Dinner Dance at the Zeris Inn. It will be an unforgettable event.

The seasons go by so fast. One day I'm writing while snow mounts up at the door. Tonight I write while the air conditioner is gamely trying to suck the humidity out of the air on another close-to-90-degree day. You will be reading this in September and hopefully will have found many opportunities to square dance over the summer. Thanks to Karen Mallozzi and the dancers who accompanied her, Rockytops met the NNJSDA 200-mile Raiders Challenge in our Spring 2010 season. Raid Chair Sherry Landis and Assistant Karen also scheduled post-season raids: in June to bid farewell to Spinning Wheels, and in July to Hix & Chix, to enjoy the calling and cueing of the Williamsons.

Half a dozen Rockytops members — Miriam and Dave Gurowsky, Karen and Jillene Mallozzi, Carole Van Nahl, and Patsy Lisak — attended the National Convention. They enjoyed the dancing, demos, educational panels, and exhibits. Dave enthused, "It is great to meet and dance with people and hear callers from all over the country and from around the world ... also to see old friends from northern NJ and the Hudson Valley."

Hopefully, Rockytops summer dances also were successful, including the free open house dancing for newcomers. Now the Fall 2010 season begins. See our ad in this issue for our exciting lineup of callers.

With respect for the Easter holiday (which, this year, turned out to be a regular dance day), it was decided to cancel in order to allow those who celebrate to spend time with their families.

We celebrated the “merry, merry month of May” with enthusiasm and “maypole” antics, and had a visiting caller, Larry Shipman, contribute during one of our “May Day” events, bringing a refreshing touch to the festivities.

We ended our dancing season on a very positive note thanks in no small part to raids by Cross Trail Squares and Circle Eights. Thank you for contributing to a successful end to a great dancing season!

Demo at Monmouth Park Racetrack

On July 25, a spectacular group of 70 square dancers performed at Monmouth Park racetrack in Oceanport, NJ. Don Coy did an excellent job calling for the dancers and onlookers.

Monmouth Park was a superb host. Our dancers received many freebies: admission, parking, food and drink, and program book. We were also provided with an air-conditioned area in which to relax between tips. Quite a few dancers proved to be good horse pickers, as I noticed great activity at the collection windows.

We thank the State of New Jersey, Monmouth Park, and Sofia Manglee, the track's event coordinator, for their hospitality. I, personally, want to thank each and every square dancer who danced in the 90+ degree weather and helped to make this event a huge success.

Western Wheelers held their annual meeting in May. The Co-Presidents, this year, are Roger Hoernlein and Bob Bachmann. Raids included Bee Sharps in March, Hix & Chix in June, and Lakeland Squares in July. Good job, Georgi and Richie, on completing the raid program for the year! On April 10, the Williamsons drew nine squares, including 14 members from Lakeland Squares. This time we had “lights by electric” not by candles. Our last dance of the season was called/cued by Don Coy and Karen Kushler. Hilda thanked everyone who so generously helped out all year with refreshments, and we thanked her for the great job that she did as coordinator of the kitchen staff refreshment schedule.

Ginny and Eric Mailman have moved to Delaware — we wish them much happiness. In April, the Huettemanns visited Holland. In May, Pat Korzelius went on an Alaskan cruise, and the Flanderas cruised to the Black and Baltic Seas. In June, Arlene Remington, Amy Golden, Barbara Berger, and Ginny and Eric Mailman attended the National Convention in Kentucky. On a sad note, we extend our sincere condolences on the passing of Rich Flandera’s father.

Round dancing will no longer be included in our regular program except for specials. Thank you, Peg Millar, for having served as our club cuer over the past few years. W/W is still a club that works towards extending camaraderie and friendship to all who attend. Come join us; you’ll like us, “the Friendly Club.” You’ll be glad you did!

We are saddened by the loss of a valued friend and member of Y Squares. Norton Speck passed away in May. He was a faithful angel to our students for many years. We will miss Norton very much. Our hearts and prayers go out to Florence, his loving wife.

Madeleine and Joe Ostrowski are moving to Connecticut. They have served as 2nd vice presidents for a number of years. We wish them well in their move, and we hope to meet up with them on the dance floor somewhere.

Class coordinators Barbara and George Kuhne have graduated four students: James Bhasin, Pat Gorski, Sunny Kordower, and Marilyn Vice. They have been attending various dances. We wish them well.
